Dear Jericho School District Community,

As Jennifer Vartanov seeks re-election to her second term for the Jericho School Board on May 21, she extends her heartfelt gratitude for the unwavering support received from each member of the community. The trust and encouragement bestowed upon her have fueled a deeper commitment to serving the district.

As a parent of three and a resident of Old Westbury for almost 20 years, Jennifer brings a wealth of personal investment to the community. Beyond her role as a parent and trustee, she has actively contributed to the community as a long-time philanthropist, supporting various organizations. Jennifer is also a local entrepreneur, furthering her investments in the community's well-being. Her campaign has been endorsed by local elected leaders who believe in her ability to lead Jericho. Jennifer is honored to be recognized by the outstanding leaders of New York and Nassau County.

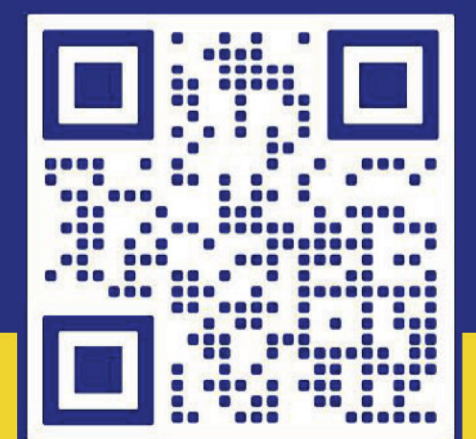

Throughout the past three years, Jennifer has tirelessly worked to foster transparency, improve communication, and elevate academic achievement, all while prioritizing student well-being. From implementing crucial policies to enhancing security measures, she has remained dedicated to amplifying the voices of parents and students.

On May 21, Jennifer humbly asks for your vote once again to continue the journey of progress. Your participation is instrumental in shaping the future of the community. Join us at Jericho High School and stand united in delivering excellence for our students and families. Each one of your votes is vital to support the Board of Education.
